

Job-Seeking with Switchwords

By Kat Miller

To present yourself well both on resume and in person: ACT (be a good orator; transition)

To manifest your heart's desire in a job: CHARM (manifest your heart's desires)

To make the people in charge of hiring like you: CHUCKLE (turn on personality)

To appear to be exactly what they want in an employee: CLASSIC (appear cultured, suave)

To not take offense at questions asked and be relaxed during interviews: CONCEDE (stop arguing, "kiss & make up")

To show them that you do know the job they are considering you for: CONSIDER (be a good mechanic, a fixer of things)

To keep from showing them anxiety or excitement over the job: COVER (reduce nervousness; subdue inner excitement)

To promote yourself to them: FOR (promote)

To allow yourself the opportunity to receive the job you want: OPEN (release; tolerate; understand; comprehend; free the mind; breathe easier; be artful; dispel inhibitions; allow)

To clear the frustration of searching for a job: OVER (end frustration)

To be successful in your endeavors at finding the perfect job for you: PERSONAL (publish a successful newspaper or newsletter; be a success)

To center attention on you and your resume for the job: RIDICULOUS (get publicity; center attention on you)

To discover the jobs most suited to you: ROOT (dig; discover; grow)

To harmonize well with those who are hiring so they feel comfortable with you: WITH (be agreeable; compatible; harmonize well with others; immerse in)